

A large, layered red rock formation, possibly a cliff face, dominates the right side of the image. The rock shows distinct horizontal strata and is set against a clear, bright blue sky. The lighting is bright, highlighting the textures and colors of the rock.

The LORD is my light and my salvation;
whom shall I fear?
The LORD is the defense of my life;
whom shall I dread?
When evildoers came upon me
to devour my flesh,
my adversaries and my enemies,
they stumbled and fell.
Though a host encamp against me,
my heart will not fear;
though war arise against me,
in spite of this I shall be confident.

Psalm 27:1-3

One thing I have asked from the LORD, that I shall seek:
that I may dwell in the house of the LORD
all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the LORD and to meditate in His temple.
For in the day of trouble
He will conceal me in His tabernacle;
in the secret place of His tent
He will hide me;
He will lift me up on a rock.
And now my head will be lifted up above my enemies around me, and I will offer in His tent sacrifices with shouts of joy;
I will sing, yes,
I will sing praises to the LORD.

Psalm 27:4-6

Hear, O LORD, when I cry with my voice, and be gracious to me and answer me.
When You said, “Seek My face,”
my heart said to You,
“Your face, O LORD, I shall seek.”
Do not hide Your face from me,
do not turn Your servant away in anger;
You have been my help;
do not abandon me nor forsake me,
O God of my salvation!
For my father and my mother
have forsaken me,
but the LORD will take me up.

Psalm 27:7-10

Teach me Your way, O LORD, and lead me in a level path
because of my foes.

Do not deliver me over
to the desire of my adversaries, for false witnesses
have risen against me,
and such as breathe out violence.

I would have despaired unless I had believed that I would see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living.

Wait for the LORD;
be strong
and let your heart
take courage;
yes, wait for the LORD.

Psalm 27:11-14
